WHO WE AREWho is providing this notice?*Austin Federal Credit Union (AFCU)*WHAT WE DO*How does AFCU protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

How does AFCU collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- open an account or apply for a loan
- use your credit card or debit card or make a wire transfer
- make deposits to or withdrawals from your account

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only sharing for:

- affiliates' everyday purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for non-affiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else?

Your choices will apply to everyone on your account—unless you tell us otherwise.
